The change in Saturday mass times had the opposite effect than was expected. New goals will be set for the upcoming year. Members to bring their ideas to the September meeting.
- Other issues- Volunteers for Lions Club Picnic – Donna Moreau -Need a thank you note- Father Matt

D. New business

- "A better way to revitalize your parish – Rich Curran – "The Compass Friday June 16th, 2017 Vol 40, No 21. A parishioner called and stated this was a very good article and had some ideas for moving forward. The article stated that we should be doing what the church wants us to do instead of focusing on what we would like to do. We do have a need for helping people with bereavement such as what happens to the survivors after the funeral. There will be a healing service beginning in October for helping people deal with cancer, depression, anxiety, and other conditions.
- Curtain with Religious Image for front of choir loft – Father Matt has purchased some Religious Image for the front of the choir loft. These images hide the supplies stored in this area and help to beautify our church.
- Missionary Disciples – Alpha program. Joe Tremblay will be coming to Niagara to train select representatives to start their training this year.1 or two members from each group to commit to attending a November 9th meeting. It will involve meeting 11 times for about 2 hours.
- Becky to be given the Orientation book

- Raffle to help with boiler costs? Dan Decker presented information on a raffle to help with the boiler costs. Dan Aderman will help organize and parish council members will help sell tickets.
- Pasty sale- November
