"Rectory Maintenance". If you wish to give in other ways

Message from Fr. Mann

"Praise the Lord! Thank you all for welcoming me into your parishes. It is a joy to be here. I come from Door County, Wisconsin which perhaps is the other side of the Niagara Escarpment so I feel at home already seeing the rock formations along the Menominee River. I arrived Tuesday and am beginning to get settled. A sincere thank you to all those who are helping to make the rectory a home. There has already been rolled up sleeves and the sweat of your brow put into it! Wow! Thank you! I am very grateful for all that you have done so far and I look forward to working on fixing and cleaning things up! If anyone is interested in joining in on the fun of the "Renovation of the Rectory Project," or to simply visit it if you have never been over across the way, please stop by the office and I will give you a tour! I look forward to meeting more of you in the weeks to come and especially after Mass this weekend for our coffee and donut welcome party. God bless you! Now & Forever!

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Holy siblings

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 This past February, Pope Francis reunited three siblings. On July 29, originally the "Memorial of St. Martha, becomes the "Memorial of SS. Martha, Mary and Lazarus."
- 2 The three siblings were friends of Jesus and lived in Bethany, near Jerusalem.
- 3 Martha and Mary summoned Jesus to Bethany when Lazarus became gravely ill. Lazarus died, but was raised from the dead by Jesus (Jn 11:1-44).
- 4 In John's Gospel, Mary also anointed Jesus with expensive oil and dried his feet with her hair (Jn 12:1-8), in preparation for his own burial.
- 5 Legends surround the siblings after the Gospel era. From a 13th century tradition, we hear that they fled Judea in a boat that landed in France.

St. Thomas More: A saint for our times

Dear friends and followers of Jesus:

Next week, the Catholic Church in the United States will once again celebrate Religious Freedom Week (June 22 to June 29). This is a time to give thanks to

BISHOP'S CORNER

Bishop David Ricken

God for the blessings of our religious freedom, while also learning more about the threats that exist to this freedom today.

The celebration of Religious Freedom Week overlaps the feast days of five saints who were killed because they stood up for what they believed: St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More.

In this column, I want to reflect on how this last saint, Thomas More, can be an example for us in our own times.

St. Thomas More lived in England in the 1500s. That century was a time of great change and upheaval in our church and in our world. This was the era of the Protestant Reformation, when Christianity split into numerous denominations. While many of these splits occurred as a result of differences of opinion about theological matters or the proper way to worship, the issues in England were different.

King Henry VIII was the leader of England at this time and, while he was Catholic and defended the church against Martin Luther and others who were criticizing it, he also felt that the church should not have a say in how he lived his life. Specifically, he was upset that the pope would not grant him an annulment from his first wife, Catherine of Aragon, so that he could marry another woman, Anne Boleyn. So, he simply made himself the head of the Church of England. In doing so, he insisted that the people of England recognize his authority over the church.

In other words, he asked them to accept something as true which was not true.

St. Thomas More, one of the king's closest advisors (Lord High Chancellor of England) and friends, was asked to sign a document acknowledging Henry as the head of the Church of England. When Thomas More, a lawyer, refused, he was beheaded for treason. His famous last words were, "I die the king's good servant, but God's first."

Much like St. Thomas More, we live in a time of political, social and religious upheaval. As a result of this, Christians are sometimes asked or expected to accept things as true which are not true.
