Our Seminarians Need Your Help:

A spiritual family needs spiritual fathers. That is why the 16th Annual Seminarian Collection is so important. By now you most likely received a letter from Bishop Ricken requesting your help in supporting our local seminarians. Please return your generous contribution to this collection, using the pledge card and return envelope you received in the mail. A gift of $15, $150, $500 or more will help our seminarians move forward in their work of becoming missionary disciples. Every gift makes a difference. As a Diocese, we anticipate costs of $1,000,000 this year for tuition, room and board, health insurance, support of the Office of Vocations and the work of Fr. Mark Mleziva and Fr. Adam Bradley. Friends and followers of Jesus support one another! In order to make your gift today, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Please keep them lifted in prayer as they begin their sacramental lives together.

Message from Fr. Quinn

Praise the Lord! This weekend, we are hearing the third discourse of the "Bread of Life Discourse." Jesus says three separate times, "I am the bread of life." Two times the Jews, "murmured," and Jesus says to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves."

I am afraid that often instead of focusing on the teaching of the Eucharist, we get bogged down and begin to murmur. Rather than allowing our mind and souls to be lifted up with the Bread of Life, we get lost in the weeds about trivial and often inconsequential details. The invitation from Jesus Christ this weekend is to embrace the line from our Gospel, "They shall all be taught by God." Will we allow ourselves to be taught? Saint Paul says, "Remove from you, along with all malice." Perhaps we have heard the term, "the old rumor mill." Murmuring about Jesus among ourselves will not help us come to believe that Jesus is the Bread of Life. In fact, it could become a deterrent to helping us be taught by God.

The time of the Liturgy is a time to contemplate and reflect upon the love that God has for us. Worshiping God is to actively pray in a truly interior way and aligning our own lives to the re-presentation of the sacrifice of Calvary. By giving His Son, Jesus Christ in the perpetual sacrificial offering, we can move away from our "murmuring hearts," and be lifted up into the Bread of Life Discourse in an entirely new and surprising way. Now & Forever! Fr. Quinn

'No hands but yours'

Statue restoration uses casting of artist's hands to replace damaged ones

BY SAM LUCERO | THE COMPASS

INSTITUTE — St. Teresa of Avila once said, "Christ has no body on earth now but yours, no hands but yours ..." Bruce Nufer, a retired art teacher from Menasha who restores religious statues, took the second part of this metaphor literally.

On June 16, Nufer, a member of St. Mary Parish in Menasha, completed a restoration project on a life-size statue of Jesus outside of SS. Peter and Paul Church. The statue's hands were damaged and Nufer had to make concrete castings of his own hands to replace the ones he removed.

"Apparently some vandals knocked off all of the fingers on the statue, leaving it looking damaged and awkward," Nufer told The Compass prior to making the trip to Door County.

"This job is unlike any restoration I've attempted before," he said. "Probably my biggest challenge was casting a new pair of hands for the statue. That's not something I do every day. Fortunately, my own hands were a close match in size, so that was a good start."

The most difficult part of creating new hands for the statue was pouring the concrete.

"I bought a foam-like casting material, but concrete doesn't pour that well into a mold with features like this," Nufer said. "I probably cast six sets of hands (to create) the right consistency so that the new hands would have enough details and enough strength."

The project was also complicated by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Al Birnschein, finance chairperson at SS. Peter and Paul Parish, said the project was delayed more than a year due to the pandemic. When the parish began plans to restore the statue, Birnschein said someone told him about Nufer, whose restoration work was featured in The Compass in 2016.

FRANKLY, FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are delving into the Letter to the Galatians, a little at a time. We have seen that these Christians find themselves in conflict on how to live the faith. The Apostle Paul begins writing his Letter by reminding them of their past relationship, his unease at being far from them, and the unchanging love he retains for each one of them. However, he does not fail to point out his concern that the Galatians should follow the correct path: it is the concern of a father, who has generated the communities in the faith. His intention is very clear: it is necessary to reaffirm the novelty of the Gospel, which the Galatians received through his preaching, to build the true identity on which to base their existence. And this is the principle: to reaffirm the newness of the Gospel, which the Galatians had received from the Apostle.

Bishop Ricken lifts dispensation for Sunday Mass attendance

BY SAM LUCERO | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — Bishop David Ricken has announced that he is lifting the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. The obligation will return on Sunday, Aug. 15, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven.

Bishop Ricken stated that while the COVID-19 pandemic "brought great sufferings of illness and loss of life among our families, ... we now find greater health returning to our communities."

"Since we are experiencing greater health in our communities and our parishes, after much discernment and consultation, I have decided to lift the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass," he wrote.

Bishop Ricken first granted the dispensation on March 13, 2020, as the spread of the COVID-19 virus grew throughout northeast Wisconsin. The initial dispensation was granted for the last three Sundays of March. Four days later, he announced that the dispensation would be extended "for the next four to eight weeks."

On Aug. 31, 2020, the bishops of Wisconsin issued a statement announcing plans for an end to the dispensation in all five dioceses.
