Young singer turns bullying experience into opportunity to help other teens

BY AMANDA LAUER | FOR THE COMPASS

APPLETON — Bullying has been around since biblical times, as the story of Cain and Abel can attest. But with the dawn of the internet and social media, bullying has intensified. It now can be done surreptitiously rather than face to face.

Franki Moscato, 16, a member of St. Raphael the Archangel Parish in Oshkosh, knows this firsthand. She was the target of bullies as the result of her burgeoning singing career. "I've been singing since I can remember. I never really sang in public much until I was about 11," she said. "It really started with me singing with our local veterans. Traveling around with them to different cities, they'd have little memorials or I'd go to the elementary school and the high school and I'd perform with the veterans behind me as they did the color guard."

She started singing the national anthem at events. She even sang at the Green Bay Packers' Family Fun Night when she was 11.

At that time, Moscato was attending a local public school. Classmates started to bully her when her career took off. "Franki wouldn't even talk about the productions she was in because she knew it was going to cause major bullying," said her mother, Kathy Sakschek. "She tried to be secret about everything but she couldn't."

Music was Moscato's saving grace.

"My outlet has been writing songs and talking about it and then also making music videos about it," she said. "We made my first music video called 'Me, Myself and I' in 2017. It won Best Music Video in the London Independent Film Awards and the LA Film Awards."

FRANKLY, FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In our continuing catechesis on the Ten Commandments, we now consider the injunction against killing. We could say that every evil is caused by a disregard for life. Assaults upon life occur in many situations, from war and exploitation to the suppression of the vulnerable, elderly and unborn. Ultimately it is fear that gives rise to the rejection of life. To welcome the other, however, challenges such fear. We see the attitude that welcomes rather than rejects life in the heart-rending concern of parents for a sick child. Their desire to protect and save is a sign of life's precious value, seen above all in those who suffer, who are in fact God's gift, and who help us to grow in his love. God's love is the only authentic measure of life, whose secret is revealed by Jesus, who embraced the rejected, weak, poor and sick throughout his life and upon the cross.

'Dollar Challenge' raises $14,302 for food bank

BY JEAN PEERENBOOM | FOR THE COMPASS

DARBOY — One dollar can go a long, long way to feeding the hungry. Greyson Peters, 9, has learned through one small act of kindness and a little help from social media.

On Sept. 7, he decided to do an "act of kindness" as part of Kindness Day at school, offering to pay for his friend Austin Slinger's lunch. Austin was having lunch with his mother, Angela, and other friends at Woodland Elementary in Harrison.

"(He) handed me a $1 bill," said Angela. "I asked him what it was for and he told me it was to help pay for my son's meal. ... He said, 'Mrs. Slinger, this dollar is for you. If you use it the right way, you could feed the entire world.'"

"I figured I must not have heard him right, so I asked him to repeat what he had said," she said in a Facebook post. "While I know we won't feed the world, I would love to challenge you each to match this third grader's $1 (or more!) to Feeding America Eastern Wisconsin."

The challenge to raise money for the hungry was on.

Our full story appears in the Oct. 12 issue.

It's through people like you that Jesus shows His love for us
You are God's greatest blessings

Thanks

to all that you've done,
And thanking God for you!

Steve & Diane Firkell,

Words cannot express our gratitude for the both of you! You have given us the past 40 plus years, in helping our Parish in so many ways. Including all the tireless hours you gave when you worked in our Church. You also donated countless hours in volunteer work at St. Margaret, Karen's Pantry and St. Vincent dePaul. With your infectious enthusiasm to help others in so many ways, we want you to know that, it did not go UNNOITICED. You both share a boundless love and faith and we are especially grateful to have been a part of that. Now it is time to enjoy what God has planned for you next. So.... relax and enjoy some well-deserved time off from the busy schedule life can bring and reflect on the next chapter in your lives. With that being said, we truly want to THANK YOU both for all the hard work, dedication and support you have given us through the years. We will be praying for you for good health and we look forward to seeing you in Church. God Bless from your Parish Family.
