Part V — Rediscovering the Power and Beauty of the Mass

Praying the Mass

In the document of the Second Vatican Council, the term, “ars celebrandi” is used which means the “art of celebrating.” In the briefest terms, this means the manner by which the priest, inspired by the Holy Spirit and guided by the Church, uses the ritual’s various elements (words, gestures, vestments, music, etc.) to manifest the living face of Christ to the praying assembly. The minister of the sacrament cannot celebrate the sacraments like a robot, nor can his creativity carry him off script. Each and every one of us, and especially the priest and other ministers, are servants of the liturgy. The art of celebrating the sacraments is the act of allowing the Holy Spirit to animate the soul of the Church’s liturgy.

Our responsibility is to be clear and transparent in the celebration of the Mass. The Mass speaks and unites and imitates Christ crucified, risen and triumphant as he gives praise, worship and honor to the Father...

Preparation For Mass

Any important event requires preparation, and the Mass (as we have seen) is the most important event of all. Applicants don’t just show up for a job interview. They prepare. Buyers don’t just show up to close on the purchase of a house. There’s much to do in advance. Well, since the dawn of Christianity, believers have been preparing for Mass in one important way: the sacrament of reconciliation. The instruction in the Didache, from the first century, could not be clearer: “But every Lord’s day gather yourselves together, and break bread, and give thanksgiving after having confessed your transgressions, that your sacrifice may be pure.” We still do this today.

We need to do this, because we all sin and fall short of God’s glory (Romans 3:23), and even the righteous fall quite often (Proverbs 24:16). We should consider going to confession monthly if we would like to grow in holiness, and the Church obliges us to go at least once a year. It is important for priests to use their homilies to remind the faithful of this tradition — to make themselves available generously to hear confessions — and to take advantage of the sacrament themselves. When we go to Mass, we are approaching the holy of holies, the judgment seat of heaven, the real and substantial presence of God. We should prepare ourselves accordingly. (Excerpts from pg. 33)

The holy Rosary is a prayer in which we meditate on the life of Jesus. Because of the mission that Mary received from God, her life was closely tied to Jesus. Mary’s Immaculate Heart was always focused on the life of her son Jesus.
