HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION:

January 1: Solemnity of Mary

August 15: Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

November 1: Solemnity of All Saints

December 8: Immaculate Conception of Mary

December 25: Christmas

Catholic holy days of obligation are the days on which we're expected to go to Mass. Every Sunday is a holy day of obligation, as Sunday is the Lord's Day. This obligation stems from the Third Commandment, which states, "Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day." To purposely miss a holy day of obligation is grave matter and, with full knowledge and consent, means it is necessary to go to confession before receiving Communion again.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. O God, who has instructed the hearts of your faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may have right judgement in all things and evermore rejoice in his consolations. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
