Pastoral Letter: *Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist: Disciples Called to Worship
by Bishop Ricken

Part VI – “Five Alive” Practices To Live the Mass

#1 Mass

For most Catholics, our primary contact with the life of our parishes will be at Sunday Mass. It is our opportunity to encounter Christ in the sacrament of Eucharist. As such, the Mass is a powerful instrument for evangelization, and every effort should be made to cultivate an environment that fosters intentional discipleship during Sunday Mass. Attention and care should be especially directed to the welcoming process, the music, the preaching and to the integration of families with young children into the community. Attention should also be given to bridging the gap between Sunday Mass and a life of discipleship. This means connecting Sunday to our everyday life....

Worship involves not only participation in Sunday Mass but also the celebration of the sacraments. It is in participating in the sacraments and the sacramentals of Catholic life that credible disciples emerge. Keeping Jesus at the center of our lives finds its fullest expression in the Mass.

I am reminding all Catholics to attend Mass every Sunday. It is an obligation which carries the weight of serious sin to miss Mass on Sunday. If you have missed Sunday Mass, please bring this to confession before your next Sunday Mass. Also, do try to go another day or two if possible. It can be a very different experience — quieter and more focused. Some people even have the habit of attending every day. Try increasing your Mass attendance by even one Mass a week for a time, then add another one. You will be amazed at how your desire for Jesus increases! Regular Mass attendance strengthens our faith through the Scriptures, the Creed, other prayers, sacred music, the homily, receiving Communion and being part of a faith community. Invite someone to Mass — a personal invitation can make all the difference to someone who has drifted from the faith or feels alienated from the Church. What brings joy is the love of Christ and the realization that we are a part of the glorious living Christ. (Excerpts from pg. 34)

SACCW – will meet on Monday, Nov 6th
