Project priority planning: After hearing diocesan recommendations St A identified the top 5 priorities

1. Expand the parking by the garage. Includes a path to the office door
2. Remove and replace cement steps coming from the upper parking lot (install a hand rail on the other steps located closer to the hall.)
3. Remove and replace the old, clogged, clay storm drain on east side of the hall moving towards hwy.
4. Put in rain gutters along the east side of the hall to stop the water coming in
5. Blacktop the area around the bell tower and alley (and maybe by garage)

St. Margaret's-Pembin is excited about, and preparing for, our 50th year Celebration (August 17th) in our current church. As we prepare, one of the events we will be having is a “basket raffle”. If anyone is interested in donating a basket or funds to prepare a basket, please contact the event leader, Mary Lou Neumann at 715-324-5738. Please plan to join us and keep us in your prayers as we prepare to celebrate.

Unlike other lay liturgical ministers, EM's, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (Communion Distributors) are to be commissioned for this ministry by the Bishop. This commissioning is preceded by proper and sufficient spiritual, theological, and practical preparation to fulfill their role with knowledge and reverence. The next available formation opportunity is Saturday, August 3rd at St. Mary, Crivitz (10:00am-11:30am). If you have not yet been commissioned and are either serving as an EM, are bringing communion to someone who is homebound, or would like to do either, please let Fr. Felix know if you are able to attend or if you need another date for training. Bishop Ricken would like all parishes to receive the Eucharist under both species at special Masses. EM's will be needed for these special events (see last page)

Starting July:

- The Thursday evening 4:30pm adoration, 5pm confession, and 5:30pm Mass will be at Sacred Heart rather than at St. Anthony.
- The Tuesday Mass is cancelled for now
- Mass intentions will increase to $20
- Stole stipends will be $75 for funerals and $100 for weddings.
- Fr. Felix will hold office hours on Wednesdays from 10-11:30am and Thursdays from 10:30-12noon in his office at St. Anthony. Look at the calendar on our website for updates from week to week.

Thank you to those who donated for the lighted rosary. Because of your generosity, each parish will be able to display an outside lighted rosary. Thank you...

Musicians and Cantors needed at St. Anthony Parish. Please let us know if you are able to help out with our music during the weekend.

You are invited to an eight-week Gospel experience, called The Rescue Project, to be held at The Immaculate Conception Parish in Iron Mountain beginning Tues, September 17th and running each Tuesday through November 5th (6pm to 8:15ish pm), with a half-day retreat on Saturday November 2 (8 am to 1pm.) The Rescue Project offers participants the chance to hear, discuss, and pray about some of life's deepest questions, including:

1. Why is there something rather than nothing?
2. Why is the world so obviously messed up?
3. What, if anything, has God done about this?
4. If God has done something, then what is my response?

At each Tuesday session, you will be served a wonderful meal, experience beautiful worship music, watch a 30-45 minute video, and then have table discussions about what the Lord may be saying to you.

Childcare will be provided. All of this is free for participants. Space is limited, so please sign-up as soon as possible at:

<https://icparish.church/the-rescue-project>

If you have any difficulty signing up, please send a note to Rick and Sue Popp at rickpopp@mac.com or call Sue at 248-787-1982.

If you cannot attend and would like to view the videos or if you want more information, go to: <https://rescueproject.us/> (SIDE NOTE: if anyone would like to bring these sessions to St. Anthony in Niagara, just let Dawn know. We need help providing meals for each session)

The Carmelite Sisters will be celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel on July 13, 14, and 15 with Eucharistic and Marian Holy Hours from 7-8pm each evening. If you are unable to make the pilgrimage to the National Eucharistic Congress – this provides a local alternative. They are located on the corner of Hwy 2 and M95 on the North side of Iron Mt.

Bishop Ricken has provided our diocese with pastoral direction on the practice of Holy Communion under both kinds (species of bread and wine – body and blood). For the next few weeks we will read sections of his directive...

Pastoral Instruction for the Diocesan Practice of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds

Introduction

As we continue the journey of missionary discipleship, we are in the midst of the Worship Jesus years. During these years, our focus is on our relationship with Jesus in the Word and Eucharist, continuing on the roadmap provided in my pastoral letter, “Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist: Disciples Called To Worship.” Providently at the same time, the bishops of the United States saw a great need for a Eucharistic Revival: a time for the Church of the United States to revive the teaching of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and to deepen our relationship with Jesus as Savior and friend.

With this renewed focus on the Eucharist, and as we moved through the pandemic, some Pastors and members of the faithful have inquired about and requested a return to the practice of the Distribution of Holy Communion from the Cup. To be sure, it is a wonderful gift for the Church to have the faithful receive the Precious Blood at Mass. Such a practice is in fact the fuller sign of the Eucharist, and it adds greater solemnity to the Mass. While the Bishop understands the genuine desire for the option to receive Holy Communion under Both Kinds on a regular basis, the Bishop cannot mandate the practice in the Diocese.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal indicates that the Diocesan Bishop may lay down norms for the distribution of Communion under both kinds for his own diocese, which must be observed. The Diocesan Bishop also has the faculty to allow Holy Communion under both kinds, whenever it seems appropriate to the Pastor, provided that the faithful have been well formed and there is no danger of the profanation of the Sacrament or that the distribution would be difficult to carry out because of the large number of participants or for some other valid reason.

History of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds

In the earliest days of the Church, there seemed to be a common practice of offering both Eucharistic species (i.e., under the forms of both bread and wine) to the faithful. Over time, however, this practice gradually became less and less frequent, until it virtually disappeared around the 12th century. Many early Protestant theologians rejected the belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and insisted that the “Chalice” be offered to all members of their congregations at every celebration. So as to uphold the Church’s teaching on the Real Presence and the Doctrine of Concomitance, the Council of Trent determined that it was pastorally inappropriate to return to the early Church’s practice of offering Holy Communion under both kinds to the lay faithful.

The Second Vatican Council, and the liturgical documents that have followed, encouraged that the Church restore the practice of offering the Precious Blood to the faithful during some of the most important celebrations of Mass within the liturgical year. The documents also extended widely the faculty of the Diocesan Bishop to establish norms for Communion under both Kinds for his own diocese, as he sees pastorally appropriate.

Like other liberties taken with liturgical practices in recent years, Holy Communion under both kinds to the faithful seems to go beyond what was called for by the Church’s documents promulgated during and after the Second Vatican Council. What was intended to only happen on particular Solemnities, Feasts, and Celebrations had become the norm. Many parishes throughout the United States, including the Diocese of Green Bay, offered the Precious Blood to everyone at every Mass. While this change was doubtlessly well-intended, it oftentimes failed to consider the following liturgical principles...
