“When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it”

“Picture then the High Priest leaving the sacristy of heaven for the altar of Calvary. He has already put on the vestment of our human nature, the maniple of our suffering, the stole of the priesthood, the chasuble of the Cross, Calvary is His cathedral; the rock of Calvary is the altar stone; the sun turning to red is the sanctuary lamp; Mary and John are the living side altars; the Host is His Body; the wine is His Blood. He is upright as a Priest, yet He is prostrate as Victim. His Mass is about to begin.” -- Archbishop Fulton Sheen in Calvary and the Mass; A Missal Companion

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen. .

Council's Corner:

- Help restore Our Lady of Grace statue in the Narthex! Our Lady is missing her thumbs. Please consider donating towards the cost of restoring this beautiful statue which will be $125. You may put any donations in the offertory marked "Our Lady"
- Brown Scapular enrollment is offered every month following First Saturday Mass, which starts at 9am. Adoration and recitation of the Rosary takes place at 8am and is part of the first Saturday devotion. Keep in mind Our Lady's promise given to Simon Stock: "Whosoever dies in this garment shall not suffer eternal fire." Also, Father Felix has generously given us scapulars from the Philippines if you do not have a scapular; thank you Father!
- You may have noticed in the narthex we now have a rack with rosaries and a rack with veils for anyone wishing to take and use. Framed above these racks is information on each of these Catholic devotions. Neither devotions are required by the Church; however, as many parishioners in our area make use of these sacramentals they are here for anyone wishing to make use of them. Feel free to take one or to share one.
- We have been focusing on the Liturgical Calendar during many of our meeting discussions and plan on using the calendar to guide us. With this in mind, we are tentatively planning a presentation on Christian Burial and End of Life Issues for November in keeping with this Month of Remembrance. Please watch for more on this and other events!

Pastoral Letter: Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist: Disciples Called To Worship
by Bishop Ricken

Part IV Overview of the Structure of the Mass
The Readings and Homily

One of the most important reasons we gather is to hear the Scriptures proclaimed and let them form our hearts and minds. It is not enough to be present. We should be attentive. All of the books of the Bible are inspired by God. They are his Word in human language. And only the books of the Bible are inspired by God. Other books may be good or even great, but only Scripture is divine. Thus, only these books may be proclaimed in the Mass.

At every Mass, Catholics hear a great amount of Scripture. On Sundays and special feast days, there are four readings. The first is usually drawn from the Old Testament; the second usually comes from the New Testament letters. In between those two readings is a responsory from the Book of Psalms; this is often sung by a psalmist, who is often also the cantor, and the congregation.

The final and most important reading is from the Gospels, the divinely inspired accounts of Jesus' life. The ritual gives us many indications of the Gospel's unique importance. First, only a member of the clergy, a priest or deacon, may proclaim the Gospel during Mass. We preface the Gospel reading with an Alleluia — a Hebrew exclamation meaning "Praise the Lord!". We also stand for the Gospel's proclamation, though we were sitting through the earlier readings. (Excerpts from page 24)

Catechists:

We need Catechists for our 4th -6th grade students.

Please prayerfully consider this mission of evangelization and let Dawn know by August 1st if you are able to help.

If you are unable to teach a class, would you be willing to donate snacks for the students? Cosmic brownies, Zebra cakes, Rice Krispy treats, and healthier gluten free options are popular. We could also use bottle water or juice boxes.

Registration letters will go out mid-August. The first class is tentatively scheduled for September 6th.
