“Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid.”

“Picture then the High Priest leaving the sacristy of heaven for the altar of Calvary. He has already put on the vestment of our human nature, the maniple of our suffering, the stole of the priesthood, the chasuble of the Cross, Calvary is His cathedral; the rock of Calvary is the altar stone; the sun turning to red is the sanctuary lamp; Mary and John are the living side altars; the Host is His Body; the wine is His Blood. He is upright as a Priest, yet He is prostrate as Victim. His Mass is about to begin.” -- Archbishop Fulton Sheen in Calvary and the Mass; A Missal Companion

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen. .

Council's Corner:

- The Pastoral Council is working on a strategic plan for this year based on four pillars and using the Liturgical Calendar to guide us. Parish members are invited and encouraged to join a subcommittee if anyone would like to be involved in the forming of the parish mission statement and strategic plan. Please contact any member of the Pastoral Council if you have any questions.
- We are tentatively looking at November 2nd, the Feast of All Souls, for a presentation on Christian Burial and End of Life Issues. Our plan is to begin with Mass at the usual time followed by a presentation and refreshments in the church hall. More details to follow soon.
- Help restore Our Lady of Grace statue in the Narthex! The thumbs are missing and the cost of restoring will be $125. We have so far raised $30. You may put any donations in the offertory marked "Our Lady". Little details like this make a difference in creating an atmosphere of reverence when entering into our church.

Pastoral Letter: Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist: Disciples Called To Worship
by Bishop Ricken

Part IV Overview of the Structure of the Mass

The Readings and Homily

We conclude the Liturgy of the Word with the Prayers of the Faithful (sometimes called the Universal Prayer). These are brief petitions recited by a reader, or most appropriately, the deacon, to which the congregation responds with a prayer. The content of the petitions will vary, but they often include intercessions for the Church, the world, the local community, public authorities and for people who face particular difficulties.

There is a noticeable shift between the first “half” of the Mass (the Liturgy of the Word) and the second (the Liturgy of the Eucharist). The first is primarily concerned with the delivery of information — the imparting of a message. That is the purpose of the readings, the homily and the creed. The Liturgy of the Eucharist, however, focuses primarily on sacrificial action. It is to this that we now turn our attention.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

During the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the Church fulfills Jesus’ command to “do this in memory of me” — to offer his Body and Blood under the appearances of bread and wine. Jesus’ sacrifice was “once for all” (Romans 6:10, Hebrews 7:27, 1 Peter 3:18). His sacrificial gift of himself is not repeated, but rather, re-presented. The “once” was long ago but, in the Liturgy of the Eucharist, it is immediately present “for all,” in every place and in every age.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist is divided into three sections: the Preparation of the Gifts, the Eucharistic Prayer and Holy Communion.

So Mary is a Queen. And, for our consolation, we ought to remember that she is a most tender and much so that the Church wants us to call her in this prayer a Queen of Mercy. Hail, Holy Queen,
