33 DAYS to Eucharistic Glory

As we begin our preparation to consecrate ourselves to our Eucharistic Lord on June 1st, we are learning about the virtues we need to foster. This week we are working on patience, joy, faith, discipline, determination, surrender, and perseverance. We learned, “There is no virtue in beginning. It is easy. Many start, few finish.” Keep persevering in your commitment to learn more about Jesus in the Eucharist. There is still time to start, so grab a book and join in!

St. Anthony Parish needs STAMPS

Thank you to all those who donated so generously the last time we were in need! The stamps are used to send bulletins to our homebound parishioners.

FLAG needed for St. Anthony

Our outside US Flag is a bit tattered from the ice storm. Would anyone have a flag they would be willing to donate?

St. Faustina Diary entry 699 concerning

Divine Mercy Sunday:

On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. ... It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy.

The Green Bay Diocese has provided 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory for each parish. Get together with friends and family to hold a discussion or just reflect daily and, like Mary, ponder in your heart the gift of the Eucharist.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with great sadness that I heard of the death of our Holy Father. Pope Francis has been called from this life to eternal life, on this Easter Monday and today we begin a period of mourning and gratitude. We are sad to say goodbye to our Holy Father in this life and grateful for the gift of his papacy.

As a Diocese and Church, we will be offering special Masses and prayers throughout the next several days for the repose of his soul and in gratitude for his long service of God and the Catholic Church as a priest, pastor, theologian, bishop, cardinal and the successor to Peter as Pope.

His humility, great love and pastoral care for the marginalized and the poor and his commitment to interreligious dialogue are all hallmarks of his papacy. Pope Francis' apostolic exhortation, "Evangelii Gaudium", The Joy of the Gospel, called God's people to embrace a new chapter of evangelization, one that is defined by the joy that comes from a relationship with Christ.

He was the first non-European pope since the 8th century and will be remembered for his constant call to the faithful and all people of good will to protect all human life, be good stewards of God's creation and to love all people, especially those most vulnerable among us.

May God continue to guide and direct the Church in these most challenging times as we return this gift of a great "servant of the servants of God" to the One who loves him most.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Bishop David L. Ricken, DD JCL
